2010 Judges

March 6th
Pierre Briere

This cowboy was born and lived in Quebec, Canada until the age of 17 he moved to the United States and started a training stable in New Jersey where he currently resides. Pierre trains all around horses in Performance disciplines and is good enough to win the World 2009 in Junior Western Riding on She's Hat Straw. There have been exhibitors to the Youth World, Select World, and Open and Amateur World compete from his barn. Pierre got his AQHA Judges card in 1998 and also holds a NSBA card. He has judged The Texas Classic, Southern Belle, Reichert Celebration, the NSBA World in 2008, Bayer Select World in 2009 and the AQHA World in 2005. He keeps 36 horses in training at all times so he doesn't have much spare time, but will be joining us in March.

March 7th
Kelly McDowall

Kelly McDowall a 43 year old husband, father, horse trainer and a quarter horse Judge is coming to Carthage to judge our show. He and his wife Marnie and two children Klay 11 and Claire 7 own and operate McDowall Quarter horses in Franktown, Colorado. Kelly has been professionally training horses for about 25 years, specializing in all around horses for youth and amateurs. Some of his achievements have been several world and Congress Champions and multiple top ten horses. Besides training and judging Kelly enjoys golf, fishing, and trying to keep up with his two kids.

April 16th
Trigg Rentfro

Trigg has been in the horse industry for over 30 years. He started his career working for hall of fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas and has worked for Jomm Ranches in Germany and Billy Allen as both a trainer and breeding manager. He attended Oklahoma State University and received both his B.S. in agricultural economics and a masters in Animal Science. He worked 10 years for AQHA as the international director and two years at APHA as the director of performance. He is now serving as the Chief Operating Officer of the Palomino Horse Breeders Association. Trigg and Jaylia, his wife of 10 years and their son Clayton currently live in Keller, Texas.

April 17th
Laura Gilmer

Laura Kathryn Gilmer is a native of Franklin, Tennessee who has been involved with showing and raising Quarter Horses for over 20 years. In addition to her AQHA judges card, she also holds judges cards for NRHA, APHA, PHBA, and NSBA. While showing in youth, she was the youngest all-round youth in the nation and at the All American Quarter Horse Congress at the age of 11. Laura also received her undergraduate and graduate degree from the University of Southern California. Besides being involved with judging, she is the editor of the Palomino Horse Magazine, and a contributing writer for The Equine Chronicle. She also has a six year-old little boy named Hunter who loves 1st grade and karate.

April 18th
Tony Burris

Tony grew up in North Carolina and started his training facility which he runs for more than 20 years there. Several years ago he chose the warmer weather of Texas to call home, he now is the trainer for Whistle Stop Ranch in Palmer, Texas. Over the years Tony has had several Top 5 and Top 10 winners at the World Show and has multiple wins at Congress and the High Point Senior Horse in the Nation. Tony holds AQHA and NSBA judging cards and has judged the World Show twice, Congress twice, Reichert Celebration and many others. Other than training horses and showing Tony enjoys spending his spare time with his wife Jan and sons Will and Ben.

July 9th
Jay Grubb

Jay grew up in Colorado right on the border between Colorado and Wyoming, horses have been a major part of his entire life. Jay then spent 15 years in California training horses for someone else and decided to move to Purcell, Oklahoma and start his own training facility. Where he has been for eleven years now. Jay has won the World Paint Show in Western Riding and trains some All-Around horses, but mostly spends his time on Reining and Working Cow Horse training. He has been a judge four years and if he's not judging he is training, his hobby is work.

July 10th
Bruce Walquist

Bruce grew up in Kansas showing horses and moved to Texas in 1984. He and wife Cindy and Daughter Whitney all enjoy the horse business, some of their accomplishments are. Bruce has won the World AQHA Show and Congress in Western Riding, Halter, Pleasure, and Trail the first time in 1984 to 2008 and still going. He has coached youth and his daughter to winning the World and Congress in Horsemanship, Showmanship, Western Riding and Trail. Altogether he has 15 youth World Championships to his credit. Bruce finds time to judge NSBA and Appaloosa shows and recently added AQHA to his collection of judges cards. We welcome Bruce to Carthage, Mo.

July 11th
Dolly Chayer

A resident of the state of Oklahoma. Dolly and her husband Rick own and operate Chayer Training facility. The facility sets on 160 acres and features an indoor and outdoor arena. Dolly trains and shows the English and all around horses and Rick handles the Roping, and Cattle Classes. In the 20 plus years their facility has produced several Congress, Top Ten and World Show Champions through their training, showing, or breeding programs. When they're not showing or judging you might see them water skiing, snow skiing, or just relaxing with their four dogs and pet deer. Dolly has judged the NSBA World Show and we welcome her to Carthage to Ozark Quarter Horse.

September 4th
Will Knabenshue

Will Knabenshue resides in Whitesboro, Texas and specializes in Western Pleasure and All-Round horses. He is a Professional Horseman who holds judges cards with both AQHA and NSBA. He has judged such major shows as the Scottsdale Classic and has numerous futurity wins and top 10 placings at the AQHA, APHA, and PHBA World Shows. He has a wife Elizabeth and daughter Emerson.

September 5th
Becky J. Schooler

Becky Schooler resides in Delta, Ohio she is the mother of Ty Paris who is a very competitive showman. Becky and Ty enjoy showing horses at all levels. Becky has been involved in showing horses all her life, as a youth she worked for Clark and Sara Bradley. She then took on an internship with Brad Gibby, going out on her own some 20 years ago. She had trained many World and Congress Champions and holds judging cards for AQHA and NSBA. Recently Becky judged the Reichert $250,000 Class. Becky wants to wish everyone a successful show season. And we welcome Becky to Missouri.
